

...second
...nessee,
...West-
...eding,
...rather
...con-
...came
...ornia,
...et we
...treas-
...own in
...d the
...o put

...direct from
...are not to
...this city,
...Tobacco
...I would
...and exami
...further, to
...liberal sta
...Come
...More
...But I
...I will

Senator Wilson and Brooks.

WASHINGTON, June 2.

Every one here thought when the stand taken by Senator Wilson was made known that a rencontre would be the immediate consequence; the sequel to the correspondence should therefore be published. Col. Lane called upon Mr. Wilson on Friday morning after the receipt of Mr. Wilson's reply, and answered from Mr. Brooks that no assault upon him was contemplated, and that he and his friends might disarm. Mr. Wilson accepted these assurances, and appeared in the avenue without arms. The whole affair is over with, so far as these two are concerned.

Atchison's Speech Before Lawrence.

The Editors of the St. Louis Democrat have

June 1

DENT
of nat and every surgical, r
principles,
and soth;
are among operations,
ticu-ars, ne
vulta perch provements
operators n