The insurrection at Hurper's Ferry. a The details by Telegraph of the insurrection at Harper's Ferry take up so much space as to prevent their publication in our paper. It, appears, however, that the insurents were lead on by the notorious Abolitionist Brown, who was so you conspicuous in the Kansas difficulties; his two sons; and a school teacher named Cook. The developments indicate a conspiracy on the part of a few Abolitionists to revolutionize the en-The details by Telegraph of the insurrection of a few Abolitionists to revolutionize the entire South by inciting a resurrection among the slaves, which conspiracy, however, we cannot but believe existed chiefly upon paper, and in the minds of a few zealots, whose acts prove them to have been stark mad. In fact, derangeli In fact, deranget ment alone can account for their preposterous at t tempt to effect a revolution in the slave States with only 50 men, with the illusory hope, it is -R true, that the unarmed and undisciplined slaves n would rise and successfully strike for their libto The slaves were eration. evidently unprepared for such a step, and those who were implicated at all appear to have been co-* ıŀ il into the ranks The mole has been promptly quelled and routed, and peace restored. For in CI the prisoners, a Launtie Asylum would be a S more proper punishment than the gallows. Be-C. lug we give a list of the killed and wounded: 10 Killed, 5 citizens and 15 insurgents; wounded, 3 insurgents; prisoners, 5 insurgents.

The names of all his party at the ferry on Sun. 21 The names of all his party at the ferry on Sunday night, except three white men, who he admits he sett away on an errand, are as follows, with their proper titles under the Provisional Government, viz: General John Brown, Commander-in-Chief: wounded but will recover; Capt. Oliver Brown, dead; Capt. Watson Brown, dead; Capt. John Kage, of Ohio, raised in Virginia, dead; Capt. Aaron C; Stephens, of Conaccious, wounded badly; be has three balls in his hody and cannot recover; Lieut. Elewith Edwin Coppie, of Iowa, unhurt; Lieut. Albert Haslett of Pennsylvania, dead; Lieut. Wm. Loman, of Maine, dead; Capt. John Cook, of Connecticut, escaped. Privates—Stewart Taylor, of Canada, dead; New Thompson, of New York, dead: Dolph Thempson, of New York, dead: The above, with three whites previously sent off, make a all, seventeen whites. Negroes—Dangered, secontly of Ohio, and raised in Virginia, Especie, of New York, raised in South Carolina, not wounded, a prisoner; the latter was elective. names of all his party at the ferry on Sun-31 te 63 re du RI R' ne in th w pr th * AII indeco, of New York, raised in South Carolimotive, of New York, raised in South Carolimotive of Congress of the Provisional organisms some time since; Lewis Leary, of in Virginia, dead; Copeland, of tyrginia, nos wounded, a prison to Gen. Broath has nine wounds, Gen. Broath has nine wounds, country; W. an co ge die no country; an to the he wit 16.17 paid it will le a inevitably e ense in tears of Mi a The A in historical and ties blood. classical aliasions, and Wart from its benificent hea teachings, excels in point of literary excellence. wh bee It is eminently worthy of its author. hea

C

The Insurrection at Hurper's Ferry,

The details by Telegraph of the insurrection at Harner's Ferry take up so much space as to prevent their publication in our paper. It appears, however, that the insurgents were lead on by the notation's Abullitionist. Brown, who was so consideration in the Example 20.

conspicuous in the Kansas difficulties; his two constant and a school teacher named Cook. The developments indicate a conspiracy on the part, of a lew Abolitorasts to revolutionize the entice South by meiting a resurrection, among the 1 dive which conductey, however, we cannot bon to Beye exist all chiefly more paper, and in the mirds of a few realities, whose acts a rove them to have been stuck mad. In that, demances the ment alone can account for their preposterous at tenns to effect a revolution in the staye. States) $\frac{1}{8}$ with only $\frac{1}{8}$ 0 men, with the illusory love, at it $\frac{1}{8}$ true, that the unarmed and undisciplined street in would not and successfully stake for their life to eration. The lase were evidently unprepured for soil a story and this who were amplicated at all capits to have been coeard into the ranks. The mobiles been pround ly quelled and routed and peace restored. For the prisoners, a I made. A ylung would be a

**

н

iı

(*)

.

e

ţı

V . 10 e. re

11

w PI th 13 an

die

fu (11"

11

more project the south of their the william on the pass of the control of 1994, out wounds as Killest, a citizer suca. La disargents, was noted at all insurgents, prisoners, 5 insurgents.

A insurgents: personers, a insurgents.
The name cot of this party at the ferry on Son-stry night, except three white men, who he ad-mits he sent away on an errand, are as follows, with their proper titles under the Provisional Government, viz. General John Brown, Com-mander in Clart, wounded but will recover; mander in Citel, women'd our will terover; Capt. Oliver Brown, dead; Capt. Watson Brown, dead; Capt. John Kage, of Ohn, taised in Virginia, dead; Capt. Aanon C. Stephens, of Con. m ctient, wounded badly; he has three balls in his nectical, wounded bodry; he has time course in his body and cannot recover; Licut, Edwin, Coppie, to of lowa, unhurt, Licut, Albert Haslett of Connecticut, a caped, but dead; Capt, John Cock, of Connecticut, a caped, w dead; Capt John Cook, of Connecticut, e caped. Privates—Stewart Trylor, of Conada, dead; Wm Thompson, of New York, dead Dulph Thompson, of New York, dead. The above, with three whites previously sent off, make in all seventeen whites. Regross—Danger field, recently of Ohio, and raised in Virginia. Emperor, of New York, raised in South Caroli an, not wounded, a prisoner; the latter was elect—w. ed a member of Congress of the Provisional an Chartement some time since; Lewis Leary, of Chio, raised in Virginia, dead; Copeland, of Co Ohio, raised in Virginia, not wounded, a prison ge er at Charleston. Gen. Brown has nine wounds, die or at Charleston. Gen. Brown has mine wommes, me but none of them are futal. A hashel of letters were discovered from all parts of the country; one from Gerritt Smith informs Brown of money and being deposited in a bank in New York to the be credit of J. Smith & Son, and appears to be one an of many informing him from time to time as the money was rused. 1.5 We have recently had the pleasure of read