The citizens of Batesville are taking steps to improve the navigation of White River. The legislature has appointed a committee to effect an improvement. The United States Commissioners have already purchased a large quantity of land for the purpose. The river is navigable for 120 miles, and the committee hopes to make it navigable for 200 miles. The improvements will be completed within the next two years.