The Daily Picayune.

Telegraphed to our New York Correspondent.

MEMBERS OF the House in all the States, including the South, have been referred to the committee on the race question, and it has been designated as the chief committee on the subject. The committee will meet at once and proceed to the business of the day.

In the House of Representatives, the committee on the race question is composed of the following members: Messrs. A. H. B. Smith, of Ohio; J. B. B. Smith, of Texas; and J. B. B. Smith, of Arkansas.

In the Senate, the committee on the race question is composed of the following members: Messrs. J. B. B. Smith, of Ohio; J. B. B. Smith, of Texas; and J. B. B. Smith, of Arkansas.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.

The committee has the following instructions: To investigate the condition of the race question in the several States, and to report to the House of Representatives.