

A textured, painterly illustration of a landscape. In the foreground, a bison with a thick, dark brown coat and a white patch on its face is lying down on a patch of ground in a vibrant green field. In the background, there are several old, weathered buildings. One is a tall, three-story structure with a wooden ladder leaning against it. To its right is a smaller, single-story building with a thatched roof. The sky is a clear, bright blue. The overall style is reminiscent of a fine art painting with visible brushstrokes and a rich color palette.
