$1 million gifts support Townes Center, OLLI

THE CHARLES H. TOWNES CENTER for Science and the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at Furman each recently received $1 million donations.

The Milliken Foundation of Spartanburg, S.C., made its million-dollar gift to the Townes Center in honor of Daniel S. Sanders, a member of the Furman board of trustees who recently retired from the Milliken & Company board of directors. The complex's library will be named for the Sanders family.

Sanders, a Greenville resident, is former president of the ExxonMobil Chemical Company and former chair of both the American Chemical Council and the Society of Chemical Industry. He has co-chaired the Furman Parents Council and been a member of the Advisory Council and the Richard Furman Society executive committee. His wife, Emilyn, is an emerita trustee, and their sons, Dan '86 and John '88, and Dan's wife, Suzanne Von Harten Sanders '88, are alumni.

The Bernard Osher Foundation of San Francisco's million-dollar gift to OLLI will fund an endowment to support the program's growing membership and provide opportunities to expand its outreach into senior communities throughout the Upstate. OLLI offers more than 300 courses and events a year to its nearly 1,200 members. The program will soon be housed in the Herring Center for Continuing Education, now under construction.

This is the second $1 million gift that the foundation has made to Furman. FULIR, the Furman University Learning in Retirement program, was renamed the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Furman in 2008.
