CLASS NOTES POLICY

BECAUSE OF THE LARGE NUMBER OF SUBMISSIONS and clippings Furman receives for its magazine’s class notes section and the time needed to review, compile and edit so much information, news items feverently are not published until five or six months after they are submitted. Furman magazine does not publish deleted items (anything more than 18 months old at time of publication) or engagement announcements.

When sending news for class notes, please include your spouse’s or child’s name, whether your spouse is a Furman graduate, and the date and city where the birth or marriage occurred.

When sent electronically, news about alumni graduates who published in different years is included under the graduation date of the submitter.

In other cases it is given the earliest graduation date. It is not published with both classes.

Send news to the Office of Marketing and Public Relations, Furman University, 3100 Piedmont Highway, Greenville, S.C. 29613, or e-mail to alumni@furman.edu. Selected information submitted to the on-line alumni registry (http://alumni.furman.edu) is included in class notes.

_Forty-two weeks a year, Furman’s basketball team is a blue chip. But when Furman’s women’s basketball team was selected to play in the NCAA tournament, the Blue Hens were ranked just 29th. Fans were looking for a little extra. “The only thing we need is an upset,” says second-year forward Keri Kuder, “and that’s just what happened.”_
