For those who made the greatest sacrifice

John Roberts
Furman University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarexchange.furman.edu/furman-magazine

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://scholarexchange.furman.edu/furman-magazine/vol53/iss2/30

This Article is made available online by Journals, part of the Furman University Scholar Exchange (FUSE). It has been accepted for inclusion in Furman Magazine by an authorized FUSE administrator. For terms of use, please refer to the FUSE Institutional Repository Guidelines. For more information, please contact scholarexchange@furman.edu.
Willa Pettigeon Thackston
46, Furman leans. She was retired from Bell South as a sales representative. Martha Pitts Redd Martin 46, Greenville. She was a florist and wedding planner and received numerous awards for her floral creations.

Nancy J. Ray 42, Athens, Ga. She was a nurse and retired from the Greenville County School District and was an organist at the First Baptist Church of Greenville. Marion Martin Johnson 47, Athens, Ga. She was a teacher in Spartanburg, S.C. and was a member of the Spartanburg County School Board for 13 years. She was a member of the Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, which he recently retired from in 1998.

He was an associate member of the Electa Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Elvira Ethelon Bogg 45, Myrtle Beach, S.C. She was a U.S. Army veteran of World War II and the Korean War. He was a former pastor of Reeds Baptist Church from 1969 to 1978. He was a member of the Eastern Star.

Irene A. Hunt 51, February 10, Morristown, Tenn. After attending Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary in Berkeley, Calif., he spent 40 years in ministry as a pastor and missionary. He was a member of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. In 1993, he was ordained as a minister in the Libera Baptist Seminary in Morristown and in the following year he became the pastor of the Christian Fellowship Church in Ashland, Ky., where he served until he retired in 1998.

Pamela Jones 52, March 15, Greenville. She served on the states to serve as pastor of First Baptist Church in Belenue, Neb. In 1992 he received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from Golden Gate Seminary, and in 1994 he returned to his native Georgia as pastor of Mars Baptist Church in Greenville.

For those who made the greatest sacrifice

In July of 2007, Craig Waldron’s son, Wayne, was hit by a projectile from a devastating suicide bomb on the U.S. border in Afghanistan.

Days later, the 2004 Furman graduate and army captain had his leg amputated above his right knee. His right foot was shattered, and he would walk with a prosthesis for the rest of his life. After receiving treatment in Germany, he returned to the United States in 2008 and began working on his master’s degree at Furman.

The term of duty is often used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.

The term “Doughboy” was used by European soldiers to describe their U.S. allies. At the time many American soldiers entered the European campaign with bayonet in the other.