TAKE A TRIP TO BEAUFORT

The South Carolina town of Beaufort and the surrounding sea islands are steeped in history. On April 17-19, the Alumni Office is sponsoring a trip to the area for folks interested in walking in the footsteps of the French and Spanish explorers who settled there 100 years before the British founded Charleston.

You'll examine how cotton, rice and slavery made the Lowcountry the midwife of the Confederacy, visit the heart of Gullah culture and history, and learn about the tensions in the area between economic development and preservation of natural and cultural resources.

To learn more, contact Jane Dungan of the Alumni Office staff at (864) 294-3464 or e-mail jane.dungan@furman.edu.
