In tune with the Pops — again

Ten years after taking the stage with the Boston Pops, led by Keith Lockhart '81, at a gala July 4, 1996 concert in Boston, the Furman Singers again joined forces with the Pops, this time for the orchestra's 2006 Christmas tour. In addition to a sellout performance at Timmons Arena on December 1, the Singers performed with the Pops at concerts in Schenectady, N.Y., Washington, D.C., and Danville, Ky., receiving strong reviews at all stops. During the Furman concert, Lockhart was presented the university's Distinguished Alumni Award.
