Urban League honors Shis

Furman president David Shi '73 and his wife, Susan Thomson Shi '71, have received the 2003 Whitney M. Young, Jr., Humanitarian Award from the Urban League of the Upstate for their humanitarian efforts and contributions to the Greenville community.

Both Shis have been active in local causes since 1993, when they moved to Greenville. In praising their selection, The Greenville News emphasized "their extraordinary contribution to the Greenville community that is manifested in numerous ways." The News pointed to David Shi's involvement in a wide variety of local and state efforts "connected with improving this area and making it a better place to live, learn and work." Susan Shi was described as "a tireless volunteer, particularly for causes related to education and early childhood development."

The award, presented November 13, is named for the educator, author and civil rights leader who directed the National Urban League from 1961 until his death in 1971. John E. Johns, president emeritus of Furman, received the Young award in 2001.

In addition, both Shis were named to the list of Greenville's "Top 25 Leaders" in a poll conducted by The Greenville News. More than 700 community leaders were asked by the News to help select individuals who have exercised influence on matters of public interest, including issues ranging from politics, business and government to education, religion and the arts.
