Pops conductor back on campus

Keith Lockhart '81, conductor of the Boston Pops, spent March 4-7 in residence at Furman, culminating his time on campus by conducting the Furman Symphony Orchestra in concert. He also worked with music students in the advanced choral and instrumental conducting classes, while enjoying the opportunity to catch up with old friends and former professors such as Charlotte Smith (below, center) and Dan Boda (right). Lockhart's visit followed a busy period in which he appeared on national television with both the Pops (at the Super Bowl) and the Utah Symphony (at the opening ceremonies of the Winter Olympics).
